2004 – 2006

BC FIRST NATIONS HEAD STARTCoaching & Facilitation

After completing the Coaching program at Royal Roads I developed and incorporated the coach approach into a Leadership training program that we delivered via distant education to the First Nations Head Start managers throughout BC. This program involved monthly conference call coaching sessions, readings and homework and partners in learning. As well I developed and facilitated workshops specifically for Head Start managers that I facilitated both in communities as well as at the regional annual conferences.
